

SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA
IN AND FOR THE COUNTY OF ALAMEDA

IF YOU PURCHASED JOINT JUICE® GLUCOSAMINE AND CHONDROITIN SUPPLEMENT IN CALIFORNIA, A CLASS ACTION MAY AFFECT YOUR RIGHTS.

A California Court authorized this Notice. This is not a solicitation from a lawyer.

- Customers sued Premier Nutrition Company, LLC (“Premier Nutrition”), makers of Joint Juice glucosamine and chondroitin supplements, alleging it falsely advertises its Joint Juice supplements by claiming Joint Juice provides joint health benefits that it does not actually provide.
- The “Class” includes all consumers who purchased Joint Juice in California from June 21, 2016 to September 10, 2020, inclusive of those dates.
- The Court has not decided whether Premier Nutrition did anything wrong, and Premier Nutrition believes all of its Joint Juice products provide the advertised joint health benefits. There is no money or other benefit available now, nor is there any guarantee that there will be. However, your legal rights are affected, and you have a choice to make now:

BASIC INFORMATION

1. Why should I read this Notice?

If you purchased Joint Juice in California between June 21, 2016 and September 10, 2020, you are part of the Class. This notice explains that the Court has allowed, or “certified,” a class action lawsuit that may affect you. You have legal rights and options you may exercise before the Court holds a trial. A trial date has not yet been scheduled. The trial is to decide whether the allegations being made against Premier Nutrition, on your behalf, are correct. Trial will be held in the Alameda County Superior Court. The lawsuit is known as Bland v. Premier Nutrition Corporation, Case No. RG19-002714.

2. What is this lawsuit about?

This lawsuit is about whether Premier Nutrition engaged in deceptive or unfair conduct in violation of California consumer protection laws by advertising that its glucosamine and chondroitin supplement Joint Juice provides joint health benefits that it does not actually provide. Premier Nutrition denies these claims and asserts that its Joint Juice products provide the advertised joint health benefits.

3. What is a class action and who is involved?

In a class action lawsuit, one or more people called “Class Representatives” sue on behalf of other people who have similar claims. The people together are a “Class” or “Class Members.” The people who sue – and all the Class Members like them – are called the “Plaintiffs.” The company the Plaintiffs sued (in this case Premier Nutrition) is called the “Defendant.” One court resolves the issues for everyone in the Class.

4. Why is this lawsuit a class action?

The Court decided that this lawsuit can be a class action and move towards a trial because it meets the standards for class certification. Specifically, the Court found that:

- The Class is ascertainable;
- There are factual and legal questions that are common to each of the members of the Class;
- The Class Representatives’ claims are typical of the claims of the rest of the Class;
- The Class Representatives and the lawyers representing the Class will fairly and adequately represent the Class’ interests;
- The common legal questions and facts predominate over questions that affect only individuals; and
- This class action will be more efficient than having many individual lawsuits.

THE CLAIMS IN THE LAWSUIT

5. What does the lawsuit complain about?

In the lawsuit, the Plaintiffs say that Premier Nutrition's joint health advertising claim for Joint Juice is false and deceptive and, for that reason, Premier Nutrition has violated California's consumer protection laws prohibiting deceptive and unfair trade practices. Plaintiffs claim that because of the false advertising Premier Nutrition was able to charge for a product that did not provide the advertised health benefits. You can read the Plaintiffs' Class Action Complaint and the Order Granting Plaintiffs' Motion for Class Certification at www.JointJuiceCALawsuit.com or www.bholaw.com.

6. How does Premier Nutrition answer the allegations?

Premier Nutrition responds that its joint health claims about Joint Juice are all true and supported by scientific evidence.

7. Has the Court decided who is right?

The Court has not decided whether the Plaintiffs or Premier Nutrition is correct. By establishing the Class and issuing this Notice, the Court is not suggesting that the Plaintiffs will win or lose this case. The Plaintiffs must prove their claims at trial.

8. What are the Plaintiffs' claims?

Plaintiffs are asking that Premier Nutrition provide monetary compensation to each Class Member, that Premier Nutrition change its advertising to make it truthful and that Premier Nutrition undertake a corrective advertising campaign. Plaintiffs will also seek attorneys' fees and costs incurred in connection with the prosecution of this action.

9. Is there any money available now?

No money or benefits are available now because the Court has not yet decided whether Premier Nutrition did anything wrong or whether consumers are entitled to money or other benefits. There is no guarantee that money or benefits ever will be obtained. If they are, you will be notified about how to seek money or other benefits from the lawsuit.

WHO IS IN THE CLASS?

You need to decide whether you are affected by this lawsuit.

10. Am I part of the Class?

All consumers who purchased Joint Juice for personal use in California from June 21, 2016 to September 10, 2020, are Class Members.

11. Are any purchasers of Joint Juice not included in the Class?

If you did not purchase Joint Juice in California within the listed time period then you are NOT a Class Member. You are also not a Class Member if you purchased Joint Juice for the purpose of reselling it.

12. I am still not sure if I am included.

If you are still not sure whether you are included, you can get free help at www.bholaw.com or www.JointJuiceCALawsuit.com, or by calling or writing to the lawyers in this case, at the phone number or address listed in question 22 below.

YOUR RIGHTS AND OPTIONS

You have to decide whether to stay in the Class or ask to be excluded before the trial, and you have to decide this now.

13. What happens if I do nothing at all?

You don't have to do anything now if you want to keep the possibility of getting money or benefits from this lawsuit. By doing nothing, you are staying in the Class. If you stay in and the Plaintiffs win, you will be notified about how to seek money or other benefits from the lawsuit. Keep in mind that if you do nothing now, regardless of whether the Plaintiffs win or lose the trial, you will not be able to sue, or continue to sue, Premier Nutrition as part of any other lawsuit about the same legal claims that are the subject of this lawsuit. You will also be legally bound by all of the Orders the Court issues and judgments the Court makes in this class action.

14. Why would I ask to be excluded?

If you already have your own lawsuit against Premier Nutrition regarding Joint Juice and want to continue with it, you need to ask to be excluded from the Class. Or, you may not agree with the allegations raised by the Plaintiffs and do not wish to be part of this lawsuit. If you exclude yourself from the Class – which also means to remove yourself from the Class, and is sometimes called “opting-out” of the Class – you will not get any money or benefits from this lawsuit even if the Plaintiffs obtain them as a result of the trial. However, you may then be able to sue or continue to sue Premier Nutrition regarding Joint Juice. If you exclude yourself, you will not be legally bound by the Court's judgments in this class action.

Questions? Visit www.JointJuiceCALawsuit.com or www.bholaw.com

If you start your own lawsuit against Premier Nutrition regarding Joint Juice after you exclude yourself, you will have to hire and pay your own lawyer for that lawsuit, and you will have to prove your claims. If you do exclude yourself so you can start or continue your own lawsuit against Premier Nutrition regarding Joint Juice, you should talk to your own lawyer soon, because your claims may be subject to a statute of limitations.

15. How do I ask the Court to exclude me from the Class?

To ask to be excluded, you must send an “Exclusion Request” in the form of a letter sent by mail, stating that you want to be excluded from Bland v. Premier Nutrition Corporation, Case No. RG19-002714. Be sure to include your name and address, and sign the letter. You must mail your Exclusion Request postmarked by January 5, 2021 to: Bland v. Premier Nutrition Corporation, c/o JND Legal Administration, P.O. Box 91344, Seattle, WA 98111.

THE LAWYERS REPRESENTING YOU

16. Do I have a lawyer in this case?

The Court decided that Timothy G. Blood and Thomas J. O’Reardon II of the law firm of Blood Hurst & O’Reardon, LLP are qualified to represent all Class Members as Class Counsel. Timothy Blood, Thomas O’Reardon and Blood Hurst & O’Reardon, LLP are experienced in handling similar class action cases. More information about Blood Hurst & O’Reardon, LLP, Timothy Blood and Thomas O’Reardon is available at www.bholaw.com.

17. Should I get my own lawyer?

If you decide not to exclude yourself from the Class, you do not need to hire your own lawyer because Class Counsel is working on your behalf. If you want to hire your own lawyer you can ask him or her to appear in Court for you if you want someone other than Class Counsel to speak for you.

18. How will the lawyers be paid?

If Class Counsel gets money or benefits for the Class, they may ask the Court for fees and expenses. You will not have to pay these fees and expenses. If the Court grants Class Counsels’ request, the fees and expenses would be either deducted from any money obtained for the Class or paid separately by Premier Nutrition.

THE TRIAL

19. How and when will the Court decide who is right?

Class Counsel will have to prove the Plaintiffs’ allegations at a trial. A trial date has not yet been scheduled. The trial will take place in The Superior Court of California, County of Alameda, Department 21 – Judge Winifred Y. Smith. During the trial, a Jury and the Judge will hear all of the evidence to help them reach a decision about whether Plaintiffs or Premier Nutrition is right about the allegations in the lawsuit. There is no guarantee that Plaintiffs will win, or that they will get any money for all or some members of the Class.

20. Do I have to come to the trial?

You do not need to attend the trial. Class Counsel will present the case for the Plaintiffs, and lawyers for Premier Nutrition will present on the company's behalf. You or your own lawyer is welcome to attend at your own expense.

21. Will I get money after the trial?

If Plaintiffs obtain money or benefits as a result of the lawsuit, you will be notified about how to participate. We do not know how long this will take.
